RELEVANT KNOWLEDGE & EXPERIENCE

MARCH 2021

MEDICINE AND BIOMEDICAL SCIENCES STUDY DAY, ST JOHN'S COLLEGE, OXFORD

During this event I attended an interactive session examining the ethics of CRISPR/Cas-9 gene editing. This enabled me to consider how to engage with sensitive topics in medicine and medical research.

JULY 2021

GP OBSERVATION, OXFORD GP SURGERY

Spending two days observing a local GP allowed me to see how important the manner of speaking is in putting patients at ease, and how you need to adjust your medical style to suit different patients.

SKILLS

- Critical Thinking
- Applying theoretical knowledge to practical situations
- Commitment and motivation
- Mature engagement with sensitive material
- Teamwork

ACTIVITIES

I am a keen ice skater and have participated in local competitions. Most recently, I was selected for a solo performance in our local Christmas show for under 18s. I also volunteer in a local charity shop every Saturday morning, and have done this since 2019.
